

WESTERLY

The children of Christ Church Sunday school enjoyed their annual Christmas festival in the church vestry. The hall was crowded with young people and their friends and all enjoyed a short program presented by the Sunday school children. Gifts for all the children were distributed and all received fruit and candy. Following the distribution of gifts refreshments were served to all present. The children of the church brought gifts which were sent to St. Mary's Orphanage for Girls and St. Anthony's School for Boys in Providence.

A visit by Federal Prohibition Agents. Leopold Mahol and Courtland E. Brown, to Ledyard, resulted in the capture of two stills, a small amount of liquor and about seventy gallons of cornmeal mash. The confiscated stills are alleged to belong to Peter Pittini, who leases a plot of land from the Brewster Co., and Arthur Martin, who lives in the same vicinity.

St. Joseph's sodality of the Church of the Immaculate Conception held a successful social and what in the assembly room. The proceeds amounted to about $50 and will be used to purchase a society banner for the boys.

There will be a watch night service

STONINGTON

The Second Congregational church of Stonington held its annual meeting at the church parlors Wednesday evening. Rev. Dwight C. Stone who has been pastor for several years was the choice for pastor for another year. Henry A. Muller, whose term of three years has expired, was re-elected. Harry H. Dotson, whose term expired as trustee, was re-elected. Also re-elected collector, August J. Miller was elected clerk. Harry W. Babcock, treasurer, Theodore W. Hyde, treasurer of benevolence, James H. Conn, book, auditor, the three members elected to the standing committee were Mrs. F. W. Hyde, Mrs. Henry R. Palmer, and Barbara Muller. Matthew C. Graham was elected director of ushers.

Manuel Post and family have returned from a visit in Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Safford and children of New Jersey are visiting at the home of Miss Hildah Bowman.

Manuel Henry of Taunton, Mass., a former resident of Stonington is the guest of friends here.

A watch night service will be held in the church this year as usual.

William Outman has returned to New Jersey after a few days' visit in the borough.

WILMINGTON

Mrs. Alice Schneider of New York came to Hillside to spend the holidays. William Davis and Levi Robinson were home over Christmas, returning to State Line the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Robbins went on Saturday to Willimantic to visit their daughter, Mrs. Elsie Mondor, returning Sunday.

Miss Lucy Eldridge affectionately called "Aunt Lucy" was ninety years old last Saturday. She lives on the home farm where she was born, and has passed her life, the last of a very long one. Aunt Lucy is lame from a fractured hip, but is able to be around the house and is comfortable. She receives visitors and is cheerful and entertaining. She received calls and many gifts and cards on her birthday.

Miss Ruth Davis of Providence, R. I., is spending the holidays at home.

Miss Helen Mann, Hallowell's efficient teacher, is spending the Christmas recess at her home in South Manchester.

Miss Pauline Chalker who is teaching in Bristol, came to her home here Thursday.

Samuel Gardner of New Haven and Dorothy Gardner of Rockville, were guests of their mother and sister, Mrs. Gardner and Miss Gardner, Christmas.

Dr. Maria Price of Middlebury, Mass., Mrs. Christine of New Britain, Mrs. Henry Tibbott, and his aunt, Mrs. Margaret West.

Tony Westcott of Boston has been visiting his father.

Friends on the Hilltop received Christmas cards from their neighbors, Misses Palmer and Dunning, who are in New York for the winter.

Miss Mary Polkan has been in Watbury for a visit.

The Christmas exercises on the Hill were held at the church Monday evening. A large audience listened to a very interesting entertainment and singing by the children. Two trees were loaded with gifts which Santa Claus helped distribute. Many compliments were paid Misses Doris Amford and Elizabeth Parver, the committee in charge. The church was artistically decorated by willing hands.

Louis Himelestein was in Colchester Wednesday.

Leo G. Cumming of Springfield, Mass., was a recent caller at Shady Lawn farm.

Mr. Downes, who has been caretaker of the summer home, Mr. of Lawyer John Spafford and family of Bridgeport for several years, was found dead Tuesday morning. To all appearances he had sat down in a car and read a book when he was taken with heart trouble, to which he had been subject, and expired. The body was taken to Bridgeport Wednesday evening. He is survived by two daughters and a sister and brother, all of Bridgeport.

SOCIAL CORNER

friends who don't belong to the Social Corner for the same. Many thanks to Lucy Acorn for the nice letter telling me about her lovely plants and nice home—also nice hubby. Long may they both live to enjoy it. I hope to be able to meet her husband some time, and may later on, in the good old summer time. No, don't send me any flowers; I won't pay. I'd rather wait and come down and get them. Now think of walking two miles to church and back of a Sunday. I could not do it now, but have seen the time when I could. You must not do it, L. A. It will make an old lady of you before you are young.

I went to Franklin Hall the 14th inst. to the Social Corner meeting and enjoyed it very much. I got rather tired but rested after reaching home. It was over two years since I had met there before with them. I saw many new members who had joined since my last meeting.

Will the Social Corner sister who exchanged bags through mistake at the hall the 14th please return same at the hall at the next meeting, Jan. 11th and receive her own.

As some have asked for my number, will say you can address me at 96 Spring street, Willimantic, and I will receive it all right.

I wish to extend the greetings of the season to all Corner sisters, also to the editor.

MORE TIME TO WRITE AFTER HOLIDAYS

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters: First of all, I wish you all a happy and prosperous New Year. Now that the holidays have passed, think perhaps we will have more time to write to the Social Corner. I do enjoy the letters there, as there are many interesting things written, such as care of plants and planting bulbs and care of them. I also have a pretty Christmas cactus in bloom but it is not as elaborate as "Twice Twain's." I also have two herons (angel wings) in bloom. "Twice Twain" also has one. In fact I got mine from her. I also have a fern, the leaves of which look like the leaves of a carrot. I do not know the name of it and have found no one who does. Last but not least have a beautiful Boston fern. I give it a bath today and it looks good. My plants do not thrive in the house as I have gas and that is not good for them. Was glad to see Log Cabin in the Lane printed, but it does not seem to be the same as my mother used to stir. Can just remember a line or two which runs like this: The roof lets in the sunshine and the rain. And the only friend that's left me is the little dog of mine; in the little old Log Cabin in the Lane.

Twice Twain: Will write you soon and tell you the beautiful presents Santa left me. Hope you find as well.

WHIRLWIND

RICE-STUFFED STEAK

Social Corner Editor and Members: During these winter days the family is sure to like rice-stuffed steak. It is good eating and extends a small amount of meat. Take one pound round steak, two cups boiled rice, salt, two tablespoons chopped parsley, one teaspoon onion juice, paprika.

Blend the rice with the seasoning. Pound the steak until thin. Spread the steak with a layer of rice, and add about three-fourths of an inch thick. Roll and tie in shape or fasten with skewers. Put in a covered pan with enough water to keep from burning and cook in the oven for 30 minutes. Take off the cover and brown before serving from the oven. Thicken the stock left in the pan for gravy.

Or, if preferred, make individual servings. Cut a three-inch square of steak, place a tablespoon of the dressing in the center, roll the steak around it and fasten. Place it in a pan with a little water and cook as the roast was cooked. This steak is very good served with a tomato sauce.

Cookies are invariably nice enough without filling, but for those who like filled cookies here is a good recipe.

Filled Cookies: One cup of sugar, one-half cup of butter, one-half cup of milk, one egg, three and one-half cups of flour, sifted with two teaspoons of baking powder. For the filling cook until thick one-half cup of water, one-half cup of sugar, one tablespoon of flour and one cup of chopped raisins, figs or dates. Roll the cookie dough thin and cut. Place one teaspoon of the filling between two of the cookies and bake slowly.

May health and prosperity favor you all during the coming year.

of seeded raisins one-third of a cup of chopped citron and slowly add one cup of sifted flour; mix well and add the stiffly beaten whites of the three eggs. Butter a pudding mould and sprinkle with finely chopped blanched almonds. Pour in the pudding mixture and boil three hours. Serve with fruit sauce.

Cream Layer Cake: Beat to a cream one cup of butter and two cups of sugar and when light and smooth beat in the well beaten yolks of four eggs; add one cup of milk with three cups of flour sifted with three teaspoons of baking powder, and when well mixed add the stiffly beaten whites of the four eggs.

Bake in layers and when cold spread between layers a cream filling.

For the cream filling add one cup of milk with one-half cup of sugar and a pinch of salt. Beat the yolks of two eggs until light and add two tablespoons of cornstarch worked to a smooth paste with a little cold milk. When the egg mixture is smooth add to the milk and milk gradually, stirring until thick. Stir in a teaspoon of sweet butter and set aside to cool. Chopped fruits can be added to the cream filling when it is cold. I recently tried the Mandy fruit cake recipe and thought it fine.
